

CREATURES RALLYANY SPARE CHANGE GUV?

A Long Time Ago in another Galaxy infused with alcohol (we won't mention any other chemicals) Creature bragged that he could put on a rally as good, if not better. After opening one's mouth and uttering such brag it was only fitting for someone to spread the word and lay down the challenge..... go on then put your money where your mouth is??

At this point I suspect that Creature took a hard swallow (possibly on some more alcohol) and his pride made him rise to the challenge.... after all how hard could it be?

You really have to admire the chap as he did a splendid job and he was so determined that he even offered to sell his trike to fund it if he couldn't raise the money. I think this statement and utter determination got several communities involved and I have to say he took on a massive job and delivered it in style.

Creature spread the word via every forum imaginable, he concocted ideas for raising cash and he badgered and cagouled monies from wherever he could. You've got to be impressed with the fact that he had representation from BSH, 100% Biker and Britchopper, I think this echoes the respect that everyone has for him in accomplishing such a feat.

His ambition was to support N.A.B.D. and offer them a sum of money slightly better than the amount he offered them on stage with Rick Hulse at the Bulldog last year.

So having suitably roped everyone in and spread the word he did a tremendous job getting things organised (although some signs might have been useful Creature...as we got lost) all of this was not without its worries and he told me that he had some major worries on the lead up to it...well mate I think you did a superb job and any man would have got the willies doing what you did...speaking of such things... who did you get to knit you that big dangly thing you were wearing.... I can just imagine the conversation with some old dear...and the reply... you want me to knit you what?

Some words from the man himself....

"Can I also thank all my friends the bands who played for nothing or for petrol costs - you made the weekend really special. We had 11 bands (3 Fri & 8 Sat) which all went rather smoothly, especially as sound checks were either kept to a bare few minutes for tuning or not at all. If you want to contact any of the bands, if you go to my website <http://www.dejavuroadshow.tk/> and click on band links their details/ websites are there. Please let them know which rally you heard them at.

Nuff said now and I will leave you to have a look through some of the many photos of an excellent rally and I look forward to next years rally I am sure it will become a regular event.

Phixer.

Robin from General Skullduggery & the beer monsters who provided the backline and onstage PA's free of charge !!! including his drum kit.

A very special thanks to Wozwolf & Slappers n Trollops Your help and loan of equipment over the weekend made the rally the success that it was - Thank you and see you all real soon.

To Kylie who ferreted about with a lot of the legal bits and other things behind the scenes.

Special thanks to Rick Hulse for not only turning up but helping me through the weekend.

As for money raised from this event which will go direct to N.A.B.D it looks to be around £1400.00. The final figure will as always appear on my website as soon as things ride safe and free many thanx
